Those $1.00 contributors to the Republican campaign fund will look mighty naughty when the trusts begin to cipher on them.

Adultery, forgery and perjury are the leading features of the Hartje divorce case that is now generating such a stench in Pittsburg. It is the nastiest case on record.

William J. Bryan has so acted in England that a delegation from there to the National Democratic convention would make his nomination unanimous.

A correspondent writes to the Philadelphia Press to inquire what to have for a "conundrum supper." We should think for a supper like that she should have a few "hard nuts to crack."

Secretary Taft extended an invitation for us to join the Republican party. We hate to throw down a kind invitation, Col. Taft but you overlooked the fact that there are more Republicans now than can get federal offices in North Carolina. Then if that wasn't the case we get all the beneficence and benefit of the Republican party without striking a lick of work.

The Republican Congressional campaign committee is calling for dollar subscriptions from the people, and President Roosevelt says it's a good idea. Sure, Mike. A dollar is all the people can stand after paying about all they earn in the way of tariff taxes for the benefit of the protection cormorants.

The Pennsylvania State Geologist is to send a box of serpents around among the public schools for educational purposes. Serpents are surly well qualified to enlighten you. One of them taught Eve a lesson that we, as her descendants, will never forget as long as we have to make a livelihood by the perspiration of our noble brow.

The Inter-State Commission has been having a conference this week with sixty-four railroad officials for the purpose of letting the railroads know what "interpretation" the commission puts on the new law. What in the world was that Republican Congress is doing to pass a law in language that has to be interpretated to an intelligent crowd like railroaders?

WINGING OF GATES

Will Enforce Ordinance Re- ing All to Open Inside of Yards, Etc.

MANY WARRANTS ISSUED

Officer Detailed to Tour City and Report Existing Violations for Prosecution in Mayor's Court—Time Limit Has Expired.

"How does your gate swing?"

That is a pertinent inquiry just at present. The law requires that all shall open inside off the sidewalks of the city. It will be remembered that the law in this regard was revived some time ago by the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor was asked to enforce the same after thirty days, property owners in the meantime to be put on notice that the swinging of the gates must be on the inside except in cases, as provided, where it is impossible to swing them other than on the outside. The edict went forth that the law would be enforced after the time given and the carpenters were never so busy before in their lives. Then the fateful day came and one or two derelict property owners were haled to court for having failed to comply with the law. The plea was made that it was simply impossible to get carpenters to do the work. The Board of Aldermen then granted another 30 days and still another 30, the last of which expired on August 1st. The city authorities have now ordered that all gates must swing to the inside and Officer C. G. Jones has been detailed to the special duty of making a round of the city and reporting all violations. He made his first rounds yesterday and turned in a considerable list of those who are still derelict. Under orders of the Chief of Police warrants are being issued for all these and they will be called to account before the Mayor at noon to-day and so on from day to day until all have answered. A few of the property owners are understood to be disposed to resist an enforcement of the law and some interesting controversies are expected to result from the efforts being made to enforce the law.

LEASED GARRELL STORE.

Mr. E. A. Nelson Signs Contract For Desirable Merchandise Stand.

A lease was filed for record yesterday at the Court House by which Mr. E. A. Nelson, a popular young Wilmingtonian now in the railway mail service, becomes the tenant for a term of years of the store on southwest corner of Second and Princess streets, in the handsome new four-story office building now being erected there by Mr. Jno. F. Garrell. Possession is to be given on October 1st., and it is understood that on that date Mr. Nelson will open in the store a first-class confectionery and fruit store. The lease stipulates a rental of $900 for the first year with the privilege of succeeding years at $1,000 for the second, $1,100 for the third and $1,200 for the fourth. The stand will be one of the most desirable in the city and Mr. Nelson is to be congratulated upon securing such a desirable plan for embarking in business for himself.

REMAINS SENT TO VIRGINIA.

Funeral of Late Mr. R. C. Kimbrough at His Old Home.

The remains of the late Mr. R. C. Kimbrough, whose sad death occurred Wednesday evening, were taken on the northbound train last night to his old home at Richmond, Va., for interment. Accompanying the remains were the bereaved young widow, her brother, Mr. Holland Chick; Mr. C. H. Huband, representing the Wilmington Typographical Union, of which Mr. Kimbrough was a faithful member, and Mrs. C. H. Huband, a friend of the family. The Typographical Union assembled at the residence in a body for brief services that were held at the house just before the departure of the train and the pall-bearers were from the ranks of that organization.

JUNIORS TO ENCAMP

Second Boys' Brigades to Enjoy Week's Outing on Masonboro Sound—Advance Detail Leaves This Morning.

The Junior Brigade, First Battalion, Boys Brigade of America, will leave Saturday morning about thirty strong for its first annual encampment on Masonboro Sound, continuing for one week. The Senior Brigade of the same Battalion recently had its encampment at Southport and now the Juniors will have their outing which promises to be most interesting and enjoyable for the large number of young soldiers who will take part.

A general order has been issued by Col. Walker Taylor, commanding the Battalion, and bright and early tomorrow morning the Juniors will board a suburban car for the outing. An advance detail from the command leaves this morning to put the camp site in condition and have everything in readiness for the coming of the company. The advance guard will be composed of Capt. Alonzo Burriss, Corporals Harry Bell and Bruce Cameron and Privates Arthur McCartney and Harry Williams. Tents and camp outfits complete will be taken down to the Sound with provisions sufficient to last a week.

It will be impossible for Col. Taylor, the commander, to be with the Juniors during their entire encampment, but he will go down one day next week to review the troops and make a general inspection of the camp. The outing will be of incalculable benefit to the boys and moral as well as military training will be given. The encamppment should, and no doubt will be, a great success. Military discipline will be strictly observed by the boys while in camp.

CO-OPERATIVE STABLES.

Closing Up Affairs Brings on Suit to Determine Liability.

Justice Bornemann yesterday gave judgment against nine stockholders in the late Co-Operative Boarding Stables, at Second and Princess streets, for a claim of $168.18, in favor of the B. F. Mitchell Co., who allege an indebtedness in the amount named for feed furnished to the concern. From this judgment, the defendants took an appeal through their counsel, Herbert McClammy, Esq. It will be remembered that the stables were established by a number of horse owners in protest against a raise of the rates of board by the liverymen and were not for profit, but for mutual protection. The venture failed and the B. F. Mitchell bill was unpaid at the close of business, some stockholders disclaiming liability and others confessing judgment. The suit is appealed to settle the liability of all concerned. Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy & Son appear as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendants have given $200 bond for the trial of the case in the higher court.

IN THE SHERIFF'S HANDS.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "Though there was no special reason for it, and just by accident, there were four sheriffs in Fayetteville yesterday. One was from the largest county in the State, one from the county that has the largest city in the State, one from the best county in the State, and the other from one of the parent counties of the State, as follows: Sheriff Geo. B. McLead, of Robeson; Sheriff F. H. Stedman, of New Hanover; Sheriff Marsh, of Cumberland, and Sheriff C. W. Lyon, of Bladen. There was also in the city at the same time Hon. H. L. Godwin, nominee for Congress, and Mr. J. S. Williamson, Register of Deeds of Bladen."

Chadbourn Ice Plant.

Messrs. W. E. Springer and J. A. Springer, of the Independent Ice Co.; Mr. C. W. Woodard, of the Armour Car Lines, and an official of the Atlantic Coast Line, expect to leave on the early morning train to-day for Chadbourn, where they go to locate the new ice factory which the Independent people will locate there for the berry and truck business. It is highly important that all preliminaries be gone into at once as the factory is to be completed by the first of January and there is no time to lose.

Died In Virginia.

Relatives in the city have been advised of the sudden death by apoplexy of Mr. T. D. Milton, of Paeonian Springs, Virginia. Mr. Milton was the father of Miss Nancy Milton, who will be so pleasantly remembered as having spent the Winter here a few years ago with her relative, Mrs. W. N. Harriss.

RESERVES ARE BACK

Wilmington Division of Naval Brigade Returned on Steamer Compton Yesterday.

CRUISE VERY SUCCESSFUL

Newbern Sailors Guests of Local Tars, Will Return Home To-day—Various Events and Features of Stay at Morehead City.

The booming of a salute of many guns from the deck of the steamer Compton in the harbor yesterday a little after noon announced the return of the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, from its anual cruise with the North Carolina Naval Brigade. The ship left Morehead City where the National Guard has been encamped for the past ten days, at 4:20 Wednesday afternoon and after a very pleasant trip around, reached Southport at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. A salute was fired from the guns aboard in the harbor there, immediately after which the cruiser proceeded up to Wilmington.

The jackies reached Wilmington in excellent shape and had a splendid cruise on the Compton, which was found admirably adapted to the purpose. The men had some fine practice with targets at sea and had an opportunity of getting their sea legs in good fashion before returning. Not a man with whom a reporter talked yesterday regretted the trip and expressed a hope of going on the cruise again next year. Lieut. Jno. B. Peschau was in command of the Wilmington Division the latter days of the cruise and brought them around yesterday. With the Wilmington sailors were a part of the Newbern Division who chose to come to Wilmington on the ship and return by rail from here. The Newbern jackies were entertained by their Wilmington comrades during the afternoon and night at their armory, on Princess street and the visitors will leave this afternoon for their homes.

Governor Glenn and staff were guests of the sailors at Morehead for several little informal affairs all of which were much enjoyed by the chief executive. The ship went out daily for a cruise while at Morehead except on two days when the steamer was stuck on a sand bar. The incident reflected in no wise upon those in charge of the ship and the "t'ars" rather more enjoyed than were discomfited by the accident. Capt. W. A. Sanders, representing the owners, was aboard the Comptonn for most of the time and the boys formed quite an attachment for him. The genial captain was among the most popular of the "command." The sailors were frequent visitors at Camp Glenn and were cordially received by the infantry and artillery there.

DISTURBANCE IN BROOKLYN.

White Man Pasted With Brick by Negro Railroad Fireman.

Donnie Meares, a young colored man employed as a fireman on the Atlantic Coast Line, was lodged in the station house early yesterday afternoon on a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon upon one, C. W. Cavendaugh, a white man, with whom he had some words in front of the branch store of S. W. Sanders, on North Fourth street. It appears that the manager of the store had asked a crowd in front of the place to clear out and that Meares was slow in doing so. Cavendaugh took it upon himself to move the negro Meares and pushed him out of the way. The negro became incensed at this interference and securing a brick, hurled it with some violence at the white man, who was knocked unconscious. Chief Williams came over and made the arrest and Cavendaugh was sent to the hospital. His injuries, however, amounted to nothing and he was soon discharged. The case will be aired in the municipal court to-day at noon.

Their Infant Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, No. [illegible] North Third street, have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant son, Jas. E. Brown, which occurred yesterday at noon. The child was 17 months old and passed away after an illness of some days with marasmus. The funeral will be from the residence this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

ANNUAL EXCURSIONS

Railroads Announce Their Yearly Reduced Rates to Mountains and Seashore—Wrightsville Beach Will as Usual Claim Many.

The railroads have announced August 15th as the date for their annual excursions to mountain and seashore resorts, a very low rate being offered from all points with final limit of tickets to August 31st. Wrightsville Beach always shares liberally in this travel and this year will prove no exception. The Savannah News says:

Lending a co-operative hand to the hundreds who have but a short time for a vacation trip, all rail lines from Savannah will to-day announce reduced rates, with a limit of two weeks, to Eastern seashore and mountain resorts and an equally attractive rate to Washington, which will entice many to make a visit to more easterly points. The general reduction will include the Virginia gateways in connection with water lines beyond.

Unusually attractive are the rates offered to Old Point Comfort, Virginia Beach, Asheville, Lake Toxaway, Washington, Wrightsvile Beach and Lookout Mountain.

This is the sixth annual outing, and the custom inaugurated by the railroads of operating special excursion trains at specially reduced rates has come to be regarded as a kind of special dispensation by the many who had not before taken advantage of a dash into the mountains or a breath of the salt air away from home.

The opportunity is one which comes but once a year, and it is at this time that the greater number manages to get away for a time. Requisition for extra sleepers and extra day coaches have been made some time ago. The needs of the demand have been anticipated and there will be room for all, but in order to obtain accommodations in the coveted "lowers" applications will begin to-day. Diagrams are now being displayed at all the ticket offices, and reservations will begin at once, though the sale will not be open until August 15.

The Seaboard Air Line will be driving for business to the Virginia resorts, Washington and the Eastern cities. The Atlantic Coast Line will be equally as active in soliciting travel to Washington, Ocean View, Old Point Virginia Beach and Wrightsville Beach and Norfolk, and the Southern Railway will claim a monopoly to the magnetic Sapphire country, including Asehville, Hendersonville, Lake Toxaway and the other resorts of that section. The Central of Georgia Railway will sell to the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina points.

From this date the advertising of the various lines will be prominently displayed, and each intending passenger will consult his favorite line for information being delighted undoubtedly with the advantages of travel by each, for the offerings by all will be for the quickest and best service.

Tickets will be sold August 15 to the East for noon trains of that day, for the midnight trains and for the early morning trains of the day following.

These mountain and seashore specials have catered to a steadily increasing patronage from their inauguration, and it is promised from indications that the business of the coming season will be greater than for any previous year. The limited returning of fifteen days is regarded as very liberal. The rates approximate one cent a mile, or less, with the exception of the Washington rate which is about one fare.

Came Near Drowning.

An insurance agent of this city whose name could not be learned last night is reported to have had a narrow escape from drowning in the surf at Carolina Beach yesterday. He was in bathing and was caught by the undertow, being carried out some distance. There was an excursion to the beach from Town Creek, Brunswick county, and two men of that party are reported to have rescued the man.

Carolina Beach Trap Shoot.

The Southport team failed to show up at Carolina Beach yesterday for the trap shoot with a team from the Wilmington Club for the handsome medal now held by A. A. Hergenrother, of this city, on a score of 24 out of a possible 25. The Wilmington team, however, was on hand and some very good sport was enjoyed. The highest score was by Mr. J. C. Loder—21 out of a possible 25.

Wanted five hundred ladies and gentlemen to try a 25-cent dinner at The Only Restaurant. You will be sure to come again. Remember the No., 118 Market street. jy 31-6t

RECRUITS FOR ROADS

TO BEGIN THEIR SENTENCES

Will Work on Scott's Hill Turnpike, Increasing Number There to 92. Defiant Member of Gang Was Son Lucas.

Thirty-four defendants, sentenced at the late term of the Superior Court here to terms on the county roads, were taken out to the stockade on the Scott's Hill road to begin work yesterday afternoon. It was the largest consignment of prisoners ever taken to the roads at one time. Seven carts were required to transport the number to the camp and half a dozen officers were along to guard them. As they were being taken from the jail yesterday a large contingent of the colored population was present to bid them adieu, and the scenes around the place reminded one of the crowds about the jail when Henry Scott was hanged about a month ago. With a majority of the convicts their exodus from the jail was more in the nature of a holiday than anything else and they shouted good-bye and gave salutations to friends and relatives in the crowd as if they were off on an excursion. The characteristics of the criminal among the negro race are interesting indeed.

With the addition of the thirty-four yesterday afternoon, there are now 92 convicts on the Scott's Hill road and they will do good work within the next 30 days in the extension of that thoroughfare to the county line. There are now no prisoners at the other camps, all effort being concentrated on a completion of the Scott's Hill turnpike.

Of the convicts sent out yesterday, Hurley Peterson, the negro convicted of breaking into the house of Mrs. B. R. Dunn, received the longest term, which was five years. Arthur Brown was a close second, he having received four years for perjury and an assault with a deadly weapon. Jim Marine, white, got two years for the secret assault on young Mike Bryant, and Hartsfield Crandall received 18 months for a vicious assault on young Walter Bell. These, with a number of others for larceny and the like, notably the junk thieves, made up the contingent which went out yesterday. Supt. Shearin, Foreman Hocutt and Guard Stokes were in chief charge of the party of prisoners yesterday afternoon and they reached the camp in safety.

With the exodus from the jail yesterday, there are left in the county prison only eight inmates. These include Adams and Sawyer, the alleged mutineers, two or three insane colored patients and a few defendants who have been bound over to the September term since the late term adjourned. Jailer Capps was congratulating himself on the relieved condition of the jail last night. He has had a mob in his "hostelry" for several months now.

Particulars of the defiant convict who was shot in the arm at the camp Wednesday morning were learned from the camp officials, who were in the city yesterday. The shooting was done by Foreman Hocutt, to whom no blame is attached upon inquiry by the County Commissioners. The wounded convict is Son Lucas, who bears the worst reputation of any prisoner on the roads, serving a two-year sentence for store breaking at Burgaw. He is the same negro who engaged Police Sergeant Burnett in a fierce encounter in "Bull Neck" several years ago, the officer biting the negro's ear off in the melee which preceded the arrest. Wednesday morning when Lucas was ordered out of the portable cage, in use on the roads, he was sullen and when he reached the works he refused to do duty. Foreman Hocutt ordered two of the guards to bring him apart from the other prisoners so that he could deal with the case. The two guards approached, but Lucas whipped out a knife and threatened to cut their hearts out if they approached. Mr. Hocutt then ordered the two guards to come off and he would go on the belligerent himself. As Mr. Hocutt approached, Lucas drew his knife back of his shoulder and made a lunge at him. The foreman drew his revolver and shot the knife out of his hand by putting a bullet through the wrist.

The convict camp authorities are endeavoring now to ascertain how the convict came in possession of the knife, which was an ordinary barlow, but with rather a dangerous looking blade.

THE SOUTH & WESTERN RAILWAY.

A few days ago a statement was published that the route of the South & Western Railroad would be changed so as to bring the road from Marion, N. C., to Mount Holly, N. C., where it would tap the Seaboard Air Line and thus reach Wilmington. Mount Holly is in Gaston county, eleven miles west of Charlotte, and we could not see the advantage of the change, unless it would be in the cost of construction. The original route to the Seaboard Air Line was from Marion to Rutherfordton, with which Wilmington is in direct communication over the Seaboard Air Line. That route would be more or less mountainous and might entail costly construction, whereas the route to Mount Holly would necessitate building a much longer road. However, the statement about the Mount Holly connection is evidently incorrect. The Manufacturers' Record contains this statement, which is probably authenic:

"The South and Western Railway has built four miles of track on its southward extension from Spruce Pine to Alta Pass, N. C., and a report from New York says that the Cumberland corporation has sold an issue of $15,000,000 of six-year 5 per cent. notes to Blair & Co. and Speyer & Co., of New York, and the Old Colony Trust Co., of Boston, the proceeds to be used to complete the South & Western to Rutherfordton, N. C. This, it is said, is expected to be finished by January 1, 1908, making a line 207 miles long from Fink, Va., to Rutherfordton, N. C."

On top of the Record's statement comes the following special dispatch to the Raleigh's Evening Times, under date of Rutherfordton, August 1:

"Maj. Hankins, of Bristol, chief engineer of the South & Western Railway, Mr. S. P. Daniels, division engineer, have been here recently, and Mr. Frank Cothran, locating engineer of the road, is here now completing the work for the resident engineers. Mr. Joe Cothran has charge of the work above here. Plans for the engineers' quarters here and at Champton's, a few miles below Rutherfordton, have been made and contracts will be let soon for the buildings. We are informed that contractors will arrive here the latter part of this week to go over the line carefully before making their bids for the construction of the road from Marion to Rutherfordton."

The South & Western is the Seaboard Air Line's coal road, now being constructed across the mountains of western North Carolina into the coal fields of east Tennessee and southwestern Virginia. It will give Wilmington an all rail connection into the coal regions over the tracks of the Seaboard Air Line.

THE GREENSBORO WAY.

Greensboro is a pretty hefty town. The citizens of that live North Carolina city have confidence in the city and they seem to have money to back up their confidence. The accumulated evidence also is that the Greensboro people have a big stock of enterprise and "it is a cold day in July" when they are not boring with some sort of a big auger.

A Greensboro dispatch states that on Wednesday "the largest meeting of capitalists ever assembled at any one time on a common purpose in the history of the State," organized the Dixie Fire Insurance Company. It was a meeting of the stockholders of the new company, and of the 5,000 shares subscribed 4,000 shares were represented in the meeting by their owners. That shows the deep interest and enthusiasm in the enterprise, and that is what makes anything go anywhere. The Star would like to see the Greensboro spirit become contageous.

The stockholders of the Dixie Fire Insurance Company organized it with the following officers:

President—J. B. Blades, Newbern.

Vice-Presidents —W. S. Thompson Greensboro; Ashley Horne, Clayton; George Hackney, Wilson.

Secretary—J. F. Cobb, Greensboro

Treasurer—C. D. Benbow, Greensboro.

The company begins business August 15th, with headquarters in Greensboro, with a paid in capital of half a million dollars, and a surplus of a quarter of a million dollars.

The beginning of the company is strenuous and as strong men are pushing it, it is bound to become one of the South's leading insurance companies.

CITY OFFICIAL WITH HIGH AIM.

The Baltimore Sun of Wednesday says in a long editorial referring to the city engineer of the Monumental City:

"City Engineer Fendall has gone to Europe to study at close range those problems which have an immediate relation to the duties of his official position in Baltimore. Good municipal government abroad as well as in the United States is based primarily upon the efficiency of those who are intrusted with the administration of government. There may be distinct differences in the form of adminstration. In some European cities there may be a blending of imperial and local authority, whereas in the United States the national government has no voice at all in the direction of municipal affairs except in Washington. But the fundamental principle of good city government is the same in the Old World and in the New."

Mr. Fendall may not find in Europe any better methods than are known to intelligent, educated and capable engineers in this country but he may do so. At any rate it is worth the trip and Mr. Fendall's trip is an indication that he wants to give Baltimore the best possible engineering service and methods that can be had. His purpose is commendable. However, will he keep to himself the result of his observations in Europe, or will he give other cities and communities the benefit, if any, he may get out of a practical insight into the engineering systems of the older civilization?

DELIGHTFUL SPOT FOR RECREATION

ALL MODERN CONVENIENCES

Nothing Lacking To Give Institute Appearance of An Ideal Home—Patients From Seven States Treated For Liquor Disease.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

(Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 31, 1906.

To the Editor:—Having had many years of connection with public institutions as supervising official, I was naturally curious critically to inspect The Keeley Institute loated in this city. Through the courtesy of the management my curiosity was gratified this morning.

Situated in the center of a square on the highest point in Greensboro, flanked by beautifully kept lawns, shaded by magnificent oaks, the green relieved here and there by ranks of bright flowers, receiving the breezes from every direction, the place offers an ideal spot for rest and recuperation.

A visit to the many rooms of the institution discovered not one but that was in perfect condition, and an invitation to take comfort. Those who are accustomed to steam heat, electric light, hot and cold water and baths right at hand, find them here. Those who enjoy the open fire may also be accommodated. Every room is an outside room and all are located on either the first or second floor—the institution being but two stories in height. Beds, bedding, walls, floors chairs—everything was immaculately clean. Inquiry developed perfect sewerage and an abundant supply of purest water. Dining-room, kitchen and pantry gave abundant token of catering to delicate appetites. Comparing the Institute with the hundreds of institutions that it has been my duty to inspect in other States I am frank to say that I have never seen a more homelike or better equipped sanitarium.

Inquiry developed the fact that patrons from seven States were being treated today, the extremes being Texas and New York. Seventy-five can readily be accommodated—the recent addition having increased the capacity by forty.

Whether one needs the facilities offered because of his habits or is simply looking for an ideal spot to rest and recuperate, the Greensboro Keeley Institute certainly attracts. Just as a beautiful place to look upon, it is worth one's while to visit.

Sincerely,

WM. B. STREETER,

Superintendent of North Carolina Children's Home Society.

LEGENDS OF OLD MINES.

The Value of the Records of Past Production.

American mining engineers are familiar with speculative schemes, based upon the real or supposed former productiveness of the mines upon which they are started. To say nothing of such enterprises as that of Richard Burton, who thought he had rediscovered in Egypt the sources of Solomon's treasure (itself somewhat mythical), there are more recent instances in abundance. The books of Humboldt and Ward on Mexico gave rise in the first half of the nineteenth century to an immense and disastrous investment of English capital in the unwatering of old Mexican gold and silver mines on the strength of reports from "government archives," showing their immense production and sundry legends, accounting for their temporary abandonment. In the prospectuses of such schemes, references to pestilence, war, quarrels among owners, etc., as the causes of the interruption of an almost incredibly profitable business are well known features.

No doubt all ancient evidence, whether historical or legendary, has its value for mining enterprises, but it is well to bear in mind that Mexican miners did not usually leave rich ore when they stopped working a mine, and there is another proposition, applicable to many mines outside of Mexico, yet too often overlooked—namely, the record of past production is a measure not of what is left, but of what is not left, in the ore deposit of a mine.—Engineering and Mining News.

GOOD CHEER AT MEALS.

The Value of Laughter as an Aid to Digestion.

Nothing else will take the place of good cheer and laughter at meals or any other time in the home. There is a vital connection between amiability and digestion—between good cheer and assimilation. Laughter is the best friend the liver has and depression or melancholia its worst enemy. Numerous experiments have shown that mirth and cheerfulness stimulate the secretion of the gastric juices and are powerful aids to digestion. Yet, knowing this, many of us sit as gloomy and absorbed at the table as at a funeral. In many homes scarcely a word is spoken at meals outside of requests for an article of food.

The meal hour ought to mean something besides supplying a mere animal function. The bell which calls the family to the table ought to be the signal for a good time generally, when all cares should be thrown off and everybody appear at his best. It ought to signalize the time for mirth and laughter. It ought to be looked forward to by the members of the family as the recess or nooning is looked forward to by pupils in school as a letup from the strenuous life.—Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine.

GREW THIS HAIR

And we can PROVE IT

Testimonial No. 670.

MRS. ANNIE E. SHEEHAN, Weir City, Kansas.

You must remember that falling hair and dandruff are signs of decay, or a diseased condition of the scalp, and you must not delay treatment. To do so simply means more loss of hair, and a greater impoverished scalp, and finally no hair. The wise thing to do is to correct it in the start. Danderine works wonders in all such cases. It will quickly regenerate the enfeebled tissues, and make your hair grow more beautiful than it ever was. NOW at all druggists, three sizes.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—In the Second primary in Craven county on Wednesday, W. C. Brewer was nominated for the House of Representatives, receiving 1,077 votes to 598 for D. L. Ward.

—The internal revenue collections for the Eastern district of North Carolina for July aggregate $173,148, of which only $14,810 was for liquor stamps, $153,876 were tobacco and $11,499 for cigars.

—The report of the State Board of Health for July says there was smallpox in twenty counties with seventy cases in Martin, twelve in Hertford and ten in Hyde; typhoid fever in fifty-seven, with over 400 cases, Wake leading with 32.

—The Raleigh Electric Company, which operates the street railway, will almost double the size of its power plant. It is said that the company operates the street cars at a loss of something like $12,000 a year. It makes money on its lights, public and private.

—The Goldsboro Knitting Mills, of Goldsboro, with $250,000 total authorized capital stock, of which $10,000 has been paid in, was chartered in Raleigh on Wednesday. The incorporators are: George C. Royal and John L. Borden, trading as Royal & Borden; A. N. Kornegay, N. O'Berry, B. G. Thompson, G. A. Norwood, Jr., W. H. H. Cobb, E. B. Borden and M. J. Best.

—Raleigh Correspondence Charlotte Observer: Work is in progress on the new history of North Carolina in two volumes, by a gentleman whose talent is only equalled by his most extensive acquaintance with North Carolina history and public affairs. The book is to be profusely illustrated and will be published in very handsome style. Special pictures will be made for it.

—Rev. J. C. Massee, of Raleigh, has given out an interesting statement of the work to rescue fallen women in that city. About a year ago a few of the ministers of that city were led to undertake a series of open-air meetings with that end in view, and Mr. Massee states that, so far, as a result of the first year's work 14 young women have been induced to leave the life of sin and try the better way. They are admitted to Christian homes as help.

—The Fayetteville Industrial Club was organized at the city hall on Tuesday night at Fayetteville by a large and enthusiastic meeting. The following were elected officers: Mr. J. H. Anderson, president; Mr. John F. Harrison, vice president; Mr. J. B. Tillinghast, secretary and treasurer. Directors—Major E. J. Hale and Dr. J. V. McGougan, Captains Leighton, Huske and James D. McNeill, Messrs. Herbert Lutterloh and John O. Ellington.

—Ernest Mauney, the young white man charged with a brutal and unprovoked assault upon Miss Vergie Jenkins, of Salisbury, Saturday night, was given a hearing on Tuesday afternoon and bound over to the next term of court under a bond of 100, which he gave. Mauney was accused of the assault, in which Miss Jenkins was severely injured by a blow on the head from a pair of knucks, by a companion, who claims that both were drunk and did not know that the young lady had been hurt. There is considerable feeling in the matter, as the attack on the young lady was of a most outrageaus and infamous character.

—Greensboro Special, August 1: At a meeting of the board of directors of the Industrial News here this afternoon, John Humphrey, formerly of the Washington Post, was elected business manager to succeed S. A. Hodgin, resigned; and the position of managing editor, now filled by A. R. Parkhurst, was abolished. R. D. Douglas, editor-in-chief, now postmaster at Greensboro, will continue to serve as editor. It is understood that the paper's expenses have been largely exceeding its income and several changes were made looking to a more economical management.

—High Point Special, August 1: The body of Mr. Beacham, who was so cruelly murdered near Jamestown yesterday afternoon and who was brought here and later carried to the undertaking establishment of J. W. Sechrest, was sent to Chafin, S. C., this afternoon, the home of the dead man. Officers Sechrest and Myers returned from the hunt after the negro this morning. Other officers returned last night. They followed the trail to Pomona, where the negro got into a crowd of negro workmen and there the dog lost track. It is believed the negro will be caught, as it is easy to identify him, he having one eye and his skin of a chocolate color.

—At Raleigh on Wednesday the Secretary of State chartered the Rowland Cotton Storage Company, of Rowland, Robeson county, its object being to accept and receive for deposit and safe keeping, at compensation to be fixed by the board of directors, agricultural products of every kind and description, especially cotton and all articles or commodities of trade or manufacture; to buy and sell any or all of said articles; to deal and act as commission merchants; and to carry on the business of a general warehouse or store house. The total authorized capital stock is $10,000, of which $1,705 has been subscribed. The incorporators are John W. Ward and A. L. Bullock, of Rowland, and L. R. Hamer, of Raynham.

—Concord Special, August 1: Governor Glenn has still under advisement the conditional pardon of Susie Hannon, the twelve-year-old murderess of H. Y. Stacks. The killing occurred in April. The Governor has notified Mr. Means, her attorney, that he would hear a personal presentation of the case by him on either Thursday or Saturday, though it is not likely that Means will go to Raleigh, as Dave Hannon, the father, is not able to furnish necessary funds. Sheriff Harris, by directions of Means, is expecting to take Susie to Raleigh tomorrow. The conditional pardon was asked for a few weeks after the trial that the girl might be placed in a reformatory or private family during the term of her sentence. The request and petition is what the Governor has heretofore refused to allow. Susie Hannon is in jail now.

—Mount Airy Special, August 1: There were two wrecks on the Southern Monday night, both occurring on the steep grade just this side of Pilot Mountain. In the first three bor cars of a freight jumped the track and turned over. Two wrecking crews went from here and were at work in clearing the track, when three cars left on the main line began rolling down the abrupt grade, gaining momentum as they came. Dashing on at a terrific rate as they reached the wreck, they ploughed their way through the rear of the train standing at the point where the wrecking crew were at work. The following men were injured: Fireman Evans so seriously that he may die; W. D. Thomas, engineer of the wrecked train, hip broken and otherwise bruised; John M. Evans, fireman of wrecked train, badly hurt about the head and body, scalded; Arthur Cook, train hand, body and lower limbs badly scalded.

—Greensboro Special, July 31: This afternoon a negro named Frank Bohannon at the camp of the Southern Railway double tracking force, near High Point, shot and killed a white overseer named Beatchman. The negro fled after emptying both loads of a double-barreled shot gun into the body of the unsuspecting overseer. Bloodhounds from High Point and Winston are tracking the negro, who is from South Carolina. The shooting created intense excitement in the camp and the adjacent county, as it was the boldest crime of blood ever occurring in the county. Monday afternoon on account of unsatisfactory work and behavior Beatchman discharged Bohannon. This angered the negro, and after remaining away for a short time, he returned to the camp to raise a row, but was driven away, and left in an ugly mood, swearing vengeance. He secured a double-barreled shot gun, and this afternoon, as Mr. Beatchman was passing along, fired both barrels into his body.

—Salisbury Special, August 1: Nease Gillespie, his two sons, John and Henry, Jack Dillingham and Geo. Irvin, the five negroes now in jail at Charlotte, charged with the murder of four members of the Isaac Lyerly family at Barber's Junction, Rowan county, on July 13, will be arraigned for trial in Salisbury next Monday, the 6th inst. At this time a special term of the Superior Court will convene for the trial of the negroes. Judge B. F. Long, of Statesville, will preside. Alexander Massey and Rev. W. M. Mitchell, colored, two inmates of the Charlotte jail, to whom Jack Dillingham is alleged to have made a confession of the crime, will be brought to Salisbury and introduced as State's witnesses against the prisoners. A large number of witnesses from Rowan will also be examined. Jake F. Newell, of Charlotte, and H. I. Williams, of Concord, have been engaged as attorneys for the five Gillespie negroes. The prisoners had some difficulty in securing counsel on account of the feeling against them in this section.

—Raleigh Times, August 1: Mr. E. H. Williamson, of the Holt-Williamson Manufacturing Company, Fayetteville, spent the day in the city on his way home from a stay of several weeks at Blowing Rock and other Western North Carolina resorts. Mr. Williamson said the people of Fayetteville are delighted at the completion of the Raleigh and Southport railroad to that city and the passenger train schedule that President Mills has inaugurated. Fayetteville people can now leave home in the morning and spend the whole day in Raleigh. He is greatly pleased as well as surprised at the splendid section of country traversed by the Raleigh and Southport between Raleigh and Fayetteville. Far the greater part of the country, he says, is fertile and well timbered and there are abundant evidences of successful farming. Mr. Williamson predicts that the road will bring about a wonderful development within the next few years and will bring about a much closer commercial and social relation between the people of Fayetteville and Raleigh.

TO GIVE HIMSELF UP.

Fayetteville Prisoner Who Escaped Sunday Writes to the Sheriff.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 2.—Sheriff Marsh to-day received a letter from young Robert Thomson, who escaped from the Cumberland jail last Sunday, stating that he would come in to-night and give himself up and would explain all the circumstances of the escape. The letter was entrusted to Mr. Walter Lambeth, who was fox hunting in the neighborhood of Fayetteville and came upon the escaped prisoner. No mention is made of Hudson, the other prisoner who escaped Sunday. It is thought that the subsequent arrest of the prisoner's little brother, charged with aiding him in escaping, led young Thomson to come in and give himself up.

In Local Politics.

Although the local political horizon was again kaleidoscopic yesterday, confirmation came from no quarter for any of the several rumors that were afloat the day before though it is not denied that certain negotiations have been attempted and that certain plans even yet on foot lack maturity. Something definite is expected within the next ten days and perhaps sooner. In the meantime, the constituency of the several candidates will wait for the atmosphere to clarify.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The monthly statement of cotton and naval stores is published in the commercial columns of the Star today.

—The Salvation Army will hold open air services to-night at Fifth and Castle streets. The public is cordially invited.

—The steamer Wilmington has discontinued her 5:15 P. M. trip to the pier and return for the remainder of the season.

—Fussell Brothers will bring in an excursion to-day from Mt. Olive and intermediate points.

—The police made 186 arrests during the month of July just ended. The record is very much in excess of the same number last year.

—Jailer Ed. Capps has been granted a week's vacation. He will spend the time with Mrs. Capps and Ed. Capps, Jr., at Carolina Beach. Deputy Sheriff Jno. W. Smith will probably have charge of the jail in Mr. Capps' absence.

—Capt. E. G. Parmele leaves this morning for Washington, N. C., to take a position with the Raleigh and Pamlico railroad now building to that point. Capt. Parmele will have charge of one of the camps on the construction of the line.

—The Raleigh Times learns that an order has been issued by which Mr. W. A. Gore, trainmaster of the Seaboard Air Line for this district, has been promoted to the superintendency of the Fourth Division of the system with headquarters at Jacksonville, Fla. He is succeeded as trainmaster at Raleigh by Capt. Cullin Jones.

—The Star is in receipt of a post card from Mr. B. F. Keith, who with his daughter, is spending some time in Massachusetts, the guest of his name sake, Mr. B. F. Keith, of theatrical fame. Mr. Keith's souvenir card presents a view of Central Square, Lynn, Mass. He writes underneath the picture: "The beauty and grandeur of this section is beyond our most prolific imagination."

—The police court yesterday offered few cases of interest. A white man charged with being drunk and down paid the costs and a small negro boy charged with jumping on and off a street car at Fifth and Princess streets, was let off upon condition that his parents administer a sound thrashing. There should be more arrests for the latter offence. That more accidents have not occurred as the result of the practice of small boys in this regard is a wonder.

JUNK DEALERS DISMISSED.

Decision Announced Yesterday By Justice Newmann—A Lecture.

Justice Martin Newmann yesterday announced his decision in the case of B. and M. May, junk dealers charged with receiving stolen goods. The defendants were dismissed upon evidence that they had purchased the goods for which the young negroes were convicted of stealing in the Superior Court last week, upon instruction of an agent of the Consolidated Company, who desired to apprehend the thieves, and Constable Savage, who worked up the case against the thieves. In delivering his decision to the defendants Justice Newmann took occasion to warn them against indiscriminate buying of junk from the negroes in the future, stating that their business was viewed with distrust by the public anyway and that while it was legitimate in every respect they should conduct it in such a way as to avoid suspicion. The lecture was of a wholesome character and will likely serve its purpose well.

Both of the defendants are young Hebrews, who have recently embarked in business here and they have signified their purpose of co-operating with the officers in every way in the future. At the trial Wednesday, Mr. A. Silverman volunteered to act as interpreter for one of the defendants who could not speak English. The court informed Mr. Silverman that it was thoroughly conversant with three languages, Hebrew, German and Irish, and the services of an interpreter were not needed.

A WALK IN THE WOODS.

Emerson Says It's One of the Secrets For Dodging Old Age.

Few men know how to take a walk. The qualifications of a professor are endurance, plain clothes, old shoes, an eye for nature, good humor, vast curiosity, good speech, good silence and nothing too much. If a man tells me that he has an intense love of nature, I know, of course, that he has none. Good observers have the manners of trees and animals, their patient good sense, and if they add words 'tis only when words are better than silence. But a loud singer or a story teller or a vain talker profanes the river and the forest and is nothing like so good company as a dog.

When Nero advertised for a new luxury a walk in the woods should have been offered. 'Tis one of the secrets for dodging old age, for nature makes a like impression on age as on youth. Then I recommend it to people who are growing old against their will. A man in that predicament, if he stands before a mirror or among young people, is made quite too sensible of the fact, but the forest awakes in him the same feeling it did when he was a boy, and he may draw a moral from the fact that 'tis the old trees that have all the beauty and grandeur. I admire the taste which makes the avenue to a house, were the house never so small, through a wood; besides the beauty, it has a positive effect on manners, as it disposes the mind of the inhabitant and of his guests to the deference due to each. Some English reformers thought the cattle made all this wide space necessary between house and house and that if there were no cows to pasture less land would suffice. But a cow does not need so much land as the owner's eyes require between him and his neighbor.—Ralph Waldo Emerson in Atlantic.

The first necessity for the proper seeing of a picture is to try to see it through the eyes of the artist who painted it. This is not a usual method. Generally people look only through their own eyes and like or dislike a picture according as it does or does not suit their particular fancy. These people will tell you, "Oh, I don't know anything about painting, but I know what I like," which is their way of saying, "If I don't like it right off I don't care to be bothered to like it at all."

Such an attitude of mind cuts one off from growth and development, for it is as much as to say, "I am very well satisfied with myself and quite indifferent to the experiences and feelings of other men." Yet it is just this feeling and experience of another man which a picture gives us. If you consider a moment you will understand why. The world itself is a vast panorama, and from it the painter selects his subject—not the copy of it exactly, since it would be impossible for him to do this even if he tried. How could he represent, for example, each blade of grass, each leaf upon a tree? So what he does is to represent the subject as he sees it, as it appeals to his sympathy or interest, and if twelve artists painted the same landscape the result would be twelve different pictures, differing according to the way in which each man had been impressed by the scene—in fact, according to his separate point of view or separate way of seeing it, influenced by his individual experience and feeling.—Charles H. Coffin in St. Nicholas.

cial telegram from Helsingford announces that all the mutineers of the fortress of Sveaborg have surrendered, and that by order of the Emperor, court martial is being instituted for the trial of the men implicated.

Another Cruiser With Red Flag.

St. Petersburg, August 3.—The crew of the Russian cruiser Asia, which was sent to Abo, has hoisted the red flag. The vessel has left in the direction of Sveaborg.

Grand Duke Nicholas received a message shortly after midnight saying that the loyal portion of the crew of the cruiser Pamyat Azova had made prisoners of the mutineers and turned them over to soldiers on shore.

Outlook Still Black.

St. Petersburg, August 3 (10:55 A. M.).—Although the mutinies at Sveaborg have been ended and the one at Cronstadt has been put down, the outlook is still black. The revolutionists, whose hands were suddenly forced by the premature rising at Sveaborg, apparently, are undaunted at these initial reverses, and intend to persist in their programme calling a general strike Saturday or Monday.

One of the leaders of the revolutionists with whom the Associated Press spoke last night, boasted that the word had gone forth and that the fire of revolt would spread to the corners of the empire. His closing words to the correspondent were:

"Now watch Reval, Rigal and Libau."

General Strike.

London, August 2.—A dispatch to Reuters Telegram Company, from St. Petersburg, says that an extraordinary conference of all the revolutionary bodies to-day decided on an immediate general strike, the exact date and hour to be settled at a meeting to-night, and that in the meantime the railways and factories have been ordered to prepare for further events.

DISPATCH WAS MISLEADING.

Nothing in Cleveland Affair to Reflect On Mayor Johnson.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Cleveland, O., August 2.—In the dispatches handled by the Associated Press on July 25, in describing the controversy now proceeding over the street railway situation in this city, the statement was made that the railway line of the Cleveland Electric Railway Company, on Fulton street, was torn up by men acting under the orders of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, and that this action was owing to the pending controversy in behalf of the Forest City Railway, a three-cent fare line and which, under certain conditions, can come under the ownership and control of the municipality. In addition to relating the facts as to the tearing up of the rails of the Cleveland Electric Railway Company, the additional statement was made that Mayor Johnson "was credited with being largely interested in the Municipal Traction Company." This statement was unwarranted, is believed to be entirely untrue, if in its reading it tended to create the impression that Mayor Johnson had any financial interest whatever in the Forest City Company, and is contrary to every public statement made by that official, he having specifically anticipated by public announcement any such possibility. That he has been interested in the success of the company, as an ultimate municipal ownership proposition, but primarily to secure a lower fare, he has openly proclaimed.

The Associated Press, therefore, desires to disclaim any knowledge or motive other than this public interest and to disavow any other suggestion in making the statement telegraphed.

Government Attorneys Dodge on Reasonable Ground.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, August 2.—John D. Rockefeller will not be served with a subpoena to appear before the grand jury which has been called to convene in this city next Monday to investigate the relations existing between the Standard Oil Company and various railroads centering in Chicago. This announcement was made here to-day by government officials, after a conference between Assistant Attorney General Oliver E. Pagin, Assistant District Attorney Francis Hanchett, T. C. McShindler, special agent from Washington, and District Attorney J. J. Sullivan, of Cleveland. The government officials declared that should Mr. Rockefeller testify before the grand jury it would be necessary to grant him immunity from future prosecution, and this, it was claimed, is what the government wishes to avoid.

CHEATHAM DABBLED IN FUTURES

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

At lanta, Ga., Aug. 2.—The committee of five to which was submitted the investigation of the charges brought by Representative Anderson against certain officers of the Southern Cotton Association met here to-day, after concluding at midnight the taking of testimony. The meeting to-day, to consider the evidence and formulate a report to President Jordan, was held behind closed doors. The report was completed and sent to President Jordan, and is to be forwarded by him to the executive committee of the Association for final action at the meeting which is to be held at Hot Springs, Ark., September 6th.

With reference to Mr. Cheatham, the report says:

"Mr. Cheatham having admitted to your committee such dealings in the name of himself and for Michael O'Grady and P. A. Lee, such a connection on his part, while an officer of this association meets with our strongest disapproval and condemnation."

The resignation of Athur A. Fairchild, as manager of the Publicity Bureau, who admitted owning an interest in the Piedmont Brokerage Company, was tendered early to-day but no action is reported on this.

FAY TEMPLETON WEDS AGAIN.

Actress Married Wealthy Pittsburg Man Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Pa., August 2.—Announcement was made to-day of the marriage yesterday of Fay Templeton, the actress, to William Patterson, of Pittsburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. G. Steinmetz, at the home of Dr. Giles, a brother-in-law of the bride, at Ridley Park, a suburb. Immediately after the wedding the couple departed on a bridal tour.

Beyond a statement that Wm. J. Patterson is a wealthy resident of Pittsburg, nothing could be learned of the bridegroom at Ridley Park to-day, as the greatest secrecy was thrown about the wedding. When the Rev. Mr. Steinmetz was summoned to the Giles' home he supposed it was for a social visit, and when he was informed after the wedding that Fay T. Osborne was the well-known actress, he was much surprised. There were no witnesses to the marriage outside the members of the Giles family.

At Portland, Ore., yesterday, the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition declared a dividend of 23½ per cent. of the par value of the stock. It also declared itself dissolved.

At Asheville, N. C., yesterday afternoon, the twelfth annual convention of the Commercial Law League of America adjourned, after electing the following officers: President, H. G. W. Dinkel, San Francisco; vice presidents, Edgar F. Brown, Syracuse, N. Y.; George M. Napier, Atlanta, Ga.; Henry Deutch, Minneapolis; treasurer, W. O. Hart, New Orleans; recording secretary, W. F. Carroll, New York. Detroit was selected as the convention city for next year.

—Durham Special, August 1: Last night there was a terrific storm throughout this section, the rain fall here being the heaviest of the year. North of Durham there was a particularly fierce cloud and reports from that section to-day say that the damage was something fearful for the farmers. Mr. J. D. Ragan, who lives ten miles north of the city, was in the city to-day and brought with him several stalks of his tobacco showing the work of the storm, wind and hail. He said that his crop of tobacco he considered worth a $1,000 yesterday and that to-day he would take $200 for the entire crop. The hail belt, he said, was very narrow, but the storm of rain and wind did great damage to cotton, tobacco and corn throughout that section. He could not estimate the damage to others in the neighborhood, but said that the loss would amount to thousands of dollars. For almost a month rain has fallen in this section every day, and in some sections cotton and tobacco are almost ruined. Farmers are almost despondent over the outlook.

DOCTORS' FEES.

A Medical View of the Charges and Work of Physicians.

The law of supply and demand regulates medical compensation to a very great extent. It is a natural phenomenon, over which neither the professor nor the laity have much control. Where there are many physicians of equal ability competition grinds down the fees. If the income drops below living expenses the least successful leave the community or take up other means of getting bread and butter. The fittest survive, and in every locality the composition of the profession is in a state of constant flux—never the same from year to year and constantly regulating itself to the work to be done. When a man develops exceptional skill his services are demanded more and more. They are bid up by competitors on the other side. He is, indeed, compelled to raise his fees to prevent overwork, strange as that may seem. He would not be doing his duty by his patients if he tried to treat a hundred a day, and that many would crowd his offices if his fees were 25 cents. It is also a fact that a surgeon can do more now than ever before—a few can do wonders as compared with the surgeons of a century ago—and they receive more in proportion by the operation of natural law. How they gained this ability is immaterial to the question. Indeed, not all have ability to profit by fortuitous opportunities to learn surgery.—American Medicine.

Curious Belgian Competitions.

The Belgian artisan spends his leisure in a very novel manner. He breeds a special cock for crowing and that which can outcrow its fellows has reached the highest pinnacle of perfection. The modus operandi is to place the cages containing the roosters in long rows, for it appears that propinquity creates the spirit of emulation, without which the proceedings would fall flat. A marker appointed by the organizers of the show is told off for each bird, his duty being to note carefully the number of crows for which it is responsible in the same fashion as the laps are recorded in a bicycle race. The customary duration of the match is one hour, the winner being the cock which scores the highest number of points in the allotted time.

Cooly.

"Is "cooly" the name of a people? It is believed to be. The word belongs to all the Indian vernaculars. Etymologists have been tempted to find its origin in the Tamil "kuli," which means hire, payment for menial odd jobs or the hireling odd job man himself, but it is pointed out in Dr. Murray's dictionary that when the word appears early in the seventeenth century it refers to a tribe of Guzerat, in the west of India, far from the Tamil speaking south—the Kuli, or Koli, who seem to have been often employed by Europeans as bearers and carriers.

Caustic Carlyle.

One day Thomas Carlyle went with Millais to look at the latter's house, and after gazing with wonder at all its splendors he turned to Millais and asked in his brusque manner, "Has paint done all this, Mr. Millais?" The painter laughed and replied, "It has." "Then," rejoined the dweller of the modest house at Chelsea, "all I have to say is that there are more fools in the world than I thought there were."

It Wouldn't Be Right.

"Now, Susie," said the teacher, "if your father should agree to work for $2.50 a day and at the end of six days should bring home $13, would that be right?"

"No, ma'am," replied Susie, "an' it wouldn't take ma long to tell him so, you bet you!"

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Don't volunteer too much information.

What a lot of time we waste wondering why.

Patting yourself on the back is a difficult task—seldom done gracefully.

There are more talkers than thinkers. Here you have the solution of gossip.

People whose reputations depend upon their clothes have to keep dressed up all the time.

Some folks are determined to dominate or die, and as there are few who rise to the first degree there are many who fall to the second.—Schoolmaster.

The Voice of Experience.

The wedding is to occur soon, and she was telling her mother about her plans.

"When Fred is out late at night," she said, "I shall not scold him. I shall try to be reasonable. I think I shall go so far as to keep a light burning for him to make him cheery when he returns."

Her mother was silent.

"Don't you think it would be a good idea to keep the light burning?" she persisted.

"Well, it might do very well for the first month or so. But after you have paid a few gas bills you'll probably conclude that it will be just as well to put the matches where he can find them and turn the light out."—New York Press.

Heroism In Animals.

Animals are capable of what we should call heroism in man. In one field was a donkey, in another a horse. Through the first went a mastiff and made for the ass, seized him by the throat, pulled him down, and that so suddenly that the donkey looked likely to be killed. The horse in the next field leaped the hedge dividing the two pastures, collared the dog with his teeth, swung him and like a baseball player caught him on the fall—with his heels. The mastiff was whisked over the hedge which the horse had just crossed, and the donkey was left in peace to recover from his wounds.

His Occasional Wish.

"Why don't you ever want to go to a wedding?" snapped Mrs. Enpeck. "I don't believe you've been to a wedding since you attended your own."

"No," mildly responded Mr. Enpeck, "I haven't. And," he added softly to himself, "I sometimes wish I hadn't attended that one."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

HARNETT IS HAPPY

Upper Cape Fear Citizens Proud of Honor Bestowed Upon Mr. Godwin.

TRIBUTE TO HIS MANAGER

First Democratic Nominee For Congress Since County Was Formed in 1855—Brunswick True to the Last—Nominating Speeches.

Dunn, N. C., July 31.—Since the nomination of Hon. H. L. Godwin on last Friday morning to represent the Sixth Congressional District Harnett County has been the scene of much rejoicing, good feeling and thankfulness. The citizens of the county appreciate the great honor which has been bestowed upon their favorite son.

Upon his return here Friday morning, a short time after the nomination, a great crowd had assembled to greet and welcome Harnett's first Democratic nominee for Congress since the county was formed from Cumberland in 1855. The enthusiasm was great. Every citizen in the county is grateful and thankful over the triumph of Mr. Godwin, and a warm and friendly feeling radiates from Harnett throughout the entire district in response to the services and loyal support received from other counties which were instrumented in crowning Harnett with this great honor.

Besides congratulations, and general good feeling and rejoicing, something has been said as to the means, or as to how Harnett succeeded in coming away with the nomination. In the first place the personality of the nominee is to be considered, along with the unflagging and clever work of R. G. Taylor, his manager. Mr. Taylor is a man without a flaw; he is frank, able and honorable, and a man in whom everyone cannot but place unqualified confidence. He stands in marked contrast with what is generally known as a practical politician. He was in control of the candidacy of Mr. Godwin as manager from the start, and he has never made the slightest mistake. His service from the beginning of the campaign until the nomination, cannot be measured.

While Mr. W. A. Stewart was not manager-in-chief, yet he did great work prior to the convention for his friend and former partner, and the greatest Congressional Convention in the history of the State culminated in his inimitable nominating speech which invested him with a halo of glory and made him the real hero of the convention. No other person could have filled his place or played his role. He effectively executed, so to speak, the will and plans of R. G. Taylor, coupled with his own good judgment. His zeal, persuasive eloquence, and magnetism constituted a great test for neighboring delegates, and finally drew them to Godwin like a huge magnet. Hon. D. H. McLean made a very strong speech in nominating and it had its effect.

But no few men did all the work by any means. The Harnett and Brunswick delegations stood by Mr. Godwin with implacable loyalty and determination. Without this the victory could not have been won. Every known pressure and force was brought to bear upon these delegations, but they wavered not and stood like tempered steel. It is said that the power of resistance increases with pressure, and this seems to have been true with the two delegations. Their loyalty cannot but evoke admiration. They went into the battle to win, and their effort were rewarded.

The people of Harnett are profoundly grateful and thankful to each and every one who contributed in any way to the nomination of their candidate.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 2.—The cotton market was very quiet again to-day, sales being liberally estimated at 50,000 bales. Prices moved within a narrow range and closed steady at a net decline of 1 to 3 points, which by some coincidence was exactly the amount of yesterday's net gain.

The opening was steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 3 points on a continuation of yesterday's covering movement and a little buying by scalping longs, who were encouraged by fairly steady Liverpool cables, and reports of quite heavy rains in the Augusta district ranging up to a little over three inches. But there seemed to be no improvement in the general demand and offerings increased on the slight bulge so that the market soon eased off and in the afternoon was about 2 to 3 points lower. The close was within a point of the lowest on the active months. The forecast called for clear to cloudy weather to-night and to-morrow. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-16 cent lower.

Receipts at the ports to-day 2,847 bales against 6,290 last week and 12,295 last year. For the week 35,000 bales against 29,492 last week and 73,620 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 181 bales against 3,165 last year, and Houston 554 bales against 3,323 last year.

SHIP SUNK AND BURNED NEAR DISMAL SWAMP

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Elizabeth City, N. C., Aug. 2.—The steamer Thomas Newton en route to Elizabeth City, from Norfolk, Va., was run into by the Barge Mars, towed by the tug Frank K. Esherick, both of Philadelphia, in Pasquotank River, one mile from the Dismal Swamp canal last and the Newton sank immediately. The cargo consisted of general freight and lime and the latter ignited, burning the boat to the water's edge. It is said the vessel's owners will claim 7,000 damages.

The Newton was built in Norfolk in 1881 and was of 47 gross tonnage. Her normal crew were nine men. No one aboard was injured so far as known.

Norfolk, Va., August 2.—The crew of nine men and five passengers were taken ashore in life boats. Captain A. L. Cahoon, of the steamer, narrowly escaped suffocation. He went into his cabin for the purpose of saving his papers and was rescued by one of the crew.

The barge Mars was libelled in this city to-day by the owners of the Newton. They claim $9,000 damages. The barge was en route to Philadelphia in tow of the tug Frank K. Esherick, and a United States marshal was waiting for them when they reached Norfolk.

A general strike of car workers on the Central of Georgia Railroad was ordered yesterday at Macon, Ga., by the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen. In addition to the members of the Brotherhood a few painters, round house men and others are involved. About 300 men are affected by the strike in Macon, Columbus and Atlanta, Ga., and Chattanooga, Tenn. The men demanded increases of pay and shorter hours—ten cents a day for the mill men who run machines, and 15 cents a day for the caboose men.

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS STAND FOR WM. J. BRYAN

State Convention Yesterday Endorsed Nebraskan and Refused to Investigate Tom Taggart—Republicans Responsible for Trust Evil.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Detroit, Mich., August 2.—Indorsement of Wm. J. Bryan for President in 1908, the defeat of a resolution calling upon the National Democratic Committee to investigate the charges made against National Chairman Thomas E. Taggart, and demand his resignation if they were proven, and the nomination of Charles H. Kimmerle, of Cassopolis, for Governor ver Stanley E. Parkhill, of Owosso, the only other candidate, after a spirited ballot, Rush Culver, of Marysville, for Lieutenant Governor, and other State officials were the features of the Democratic convention held here today.

The resolution asking for the investigation of National Chairman Taggart was presented to the convention by Chairman Fowler, of the resolutions committee, after the platform had been adopted. E. O. Wood, of Flint, former chairman of the State central committee, was on his feet as soon as the resolution had been read, with a motion that it be laid on the table. He said there was nothing to prevent wholesale unproven charges being made against any man, and that it was improper and wrong for the convention to take any cognizance of such charges. Another delegate observed that the convention had plenty to do looking after its own business without interfering in other people's. Edward Ryan, f Houghton, vehemently attacked the motive which he said was responsible for the resolution, and it was then unahimously laid on the table.

The resolutions say:

.. "Evils under the form of combinations and trusts, which have so shocked the moral conscience of the nation in the last few years are a direct outcome of class legislation by the Republican party, conferring privileges upon corporations at the expense of the common people."

OBSCENE PICTURES TO BE SUPRESSED

Catalogue of Art Students' League Seized in New York Yesterday.

FIGURES IN NUDE WAS CAUSE

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 2.—Upon a warrant sworn out by Anthony Comstock, secretary of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, the studios of the Art Students' League, one of the most noted art schools in America, were today searched and the bookkeeper, Miss Anna Robinson, was placed under arrest. It was charged by agents of the society that the reproductions of figures in the nude, contained in the Fall catalogue, which the league was about to issue, were of an immoral character. A patrol wagon load of the catalogues was seized and taken to the police court as evidence. Magistrate Mayo adjourned for a further hearing on August 7, the charges against Miss Robinson, the only person placed under arrest.

Miss Robinson was arraigned as Jane Doe, on the charge of violation of an act for the suppression of traffic in obscene literature, illustrations, pictures, etc.

The pamphlet seized by the society's agents is the one issued regularly each fall to prospective students and shows pictures of the work turned out by the students of the school. The issue is styled "The American Student of Art," and the specimens pictured are such as are seen in any art studio or museum. There are many pages devoted to the nude. The Art Students' League maintains in 215 West Fifty-seventh street studios and appointments for instruction in fine arts. No question has ever been raised before as to the character of the pamphlets issued or of the art exhibited.

BRYAN'S NEW YORK RECEPTION

Affair at Madison Square Garden Will Cost $10,000.

New York, August 2.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Wm. J. Bryan reception committee to-day, it was decided to issue reserved seat tickets to Madison Square Garden where Mr. Bryan is to deliver his address. Madison Square Garden has a seating capacity of 12,000. Lewis Nixon reported that about a thousand prominent Democrats from all parts of the country had been invited. The question of whether any reserved seat tickets at all should be issued was discussed at some length, but the suggestion of the finance committee that the whole house be ticketed prevailed.

Alexander Troup, treasurer, reported that the expense of the reception would be not less than $10,000.

The following were elected members of the executive committee: Edward Murphy, Jr., of Troy, N. Y.; ex-Governor Garvin, of Rhode Island; Clifford Breckenridge, of Arkansas; Jas. H. Lewis, of Chicago, and David B. Hill, of Albany.

ThePortland,Me., police yesterday released the man brought there from Sebago last Tuesday who is now believed to be Lord Sholto Douglas. It was stated that he had established his identity satisfactorily, and is not the bogus Lord Douglas wanted at Asheville, N. C., for bigamy.

RUSSIAN CRUISER SEIZED BY MUTINEERS

Officers Killed by Crew and Ship Roaming High Seas—She is Regarded as Pirate Craft—Cronstadt Mutineers Surrendered.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—News reached here late to-day to the effect that the crew of the armored cruiser Pamyat Azova mutinied off the Esthonian coast and are now in full possession of the ship, which has sailed northward in the direction of the Finnish gulf. It is stated that the captain and four other officers of the armored cruiser Pamyat Azova were killed by the mutineers The news of the mutiny on board the Pamyat Azova is fraught with enormous possibilities.

Ambassador Meyer has received a dispatch from the American consul at Reval saying that the Pamyat Azova entered that port this afternoon with the red flag at her mast-head. Should this cruiser, under the flag of the mutineers, sail to the northward and appear in the presence of the main squadron in the Gulf of Finland, the loyalty of the crews of these vessels would perhaps be put to a stronger test than they could stand. Although the admiralty asserts that the squadron off Sveabork did not waver in its allegiance, there is something mysterious about the reports of the actions of the ships, which warrants the suspicion that all is not right aboard. Only two ships fired on the mutineers, the others remaining on the horizon as if the admiral were not sure that they could be depended upon.

The mutiny of the Pamyat Azova may possibly raise international complications, as in the eye of the law this cruiser, like the Kniaz Potemkine, in the Black Sea in the Summer of 1905, is a pirate. There is reason to believe that the German fleet has orders covering just such a contingency as this, and that it would not hesitate to put an end to the renegade cruiser as a danger to commerce.

The Cronstadt Mutiny.

St. Petersburg, August 2.—During the night mutinious sailors, soldiers and sappers and miners seized Fort Constantine at Cronstadt, but were subsequently dislodged and compelled to surrender after heavy fighting with the loyal regiments.

The government this evening issued the following account of the Cronstadt affair:

"Yesterday evening disorders broke out at Cronstadt. Sailors of the fourth equipage of the fleet left their barracks after 11 o'clock and joined a crowd awaiting them in the street. They proceeded toward the residence of the commandant of the port. A detachment of infantry was immediately summoned and fired on and dispersed the crowd. Simultaneously the agitation displayed itself in other equipages of the fleet. Sailors began to assemble outside of their barracks, but were persuaded to return to their quarters. Meanwhile the members of the fourth equipage and the populace had reassembled and precipitated themselves towards the arsenal in an endeavor to force the gates, but they were again dispersed by the infantry and quick firing guns. Evidently the movement was planned, as at the moment of the appearance of the rioters, a red flag was hoisted on the fort which the rioters occupied. The fort was bombarded and toward 5:30 in the morning the rioters surrendered.

"Within the course of the conflict with the crowd, the following were killed: Naval Captains Rodioneff, Dobrowetsky, Schoumoff and Itaynowsk. Wounded: Rear Admiral Brelmscheff, Captains Krinitzk and Paton and Ensign Maltzeff.

"Order was restored this morning. The Finiandsky regiment of the imperial guard has arrived at Cronstadt."

According to the afternoon papers six were killed during the suppression of the mutiny, including Col. Alexandreoff, and nine were wounded, but it is added that the casualties among the rank and file on both sides were much lighter than reported.

Before seizing the Fort Constantine boat train, the sailors broke into the houses of the officers, killing some of them and wounding others. Sappers and miners and the pioners handled the officers very roughly tearing off their epaulets and maltreating them.

The majority of the artillerymen of Fort Constantine refused to join the mutineers, thus preventing the latter from getting control of the fort, with the exception of one gun. When the storming party, under the command of Col. Sheloff arrived, the mutineers were compelled to rely on their rifles, with which they replied to the volleys of the loyal troops until two field guns and three machine guns had been placed in position and opened fire, when the mutineers threw up their hands.

The number of the mutineers is given at 2,900, of whom 2,200 were sailors.

Czar Fled From Palace.

St. Petersburg, August 2.—When the firing began at Cronstadt last night there ensued a wild panic in the imperial palace at Peterhof, as the palace lies under the guns of the fortress. All preparations had been made in advance to flee to Tsarskoe-Selo, but the report afloat yesterday afternoon that the Emperor and his family actually had fled in the middle of the night was denied later at the Chancellery. It was explained, however, that on account of "dampness" at Peterhof, arrangements had been made for the return of the imperial family at Tsarskoe-Selo.

Trouble at Finnish Capital.

London, August 2.—A dispatch to Reuter Telegram Company from Helsingford this afternoon says that serious conflict between the communal police and the guards occurred there to-day. The regular police as well as the communal guards were called out during the afternoon. Among the casualties were the chief of police, who was wounded and his assistant who was killed. Troops are now engaged in quelling the disorder.

Men to Be Shot.

Helsingford, Finland, August 2.—No definite news has been received to-day from the scene of the mutiny. The officials decline to make any statements, but it is asserted from a reliable source that the mutineers, with the exception of a few on the smaller island who have guns, have surrendered. The prisoners are being landed in batches, guarded by loyal troops. Six civilians, with their hands and feet tied, were sent ashore last night in the midst of a hail of bullets. Their identity is not known, but it is reported that they will be shot immediately.

No official report of the casualties is now obtainable, but the best authorities say that only fifty soldiers and five officers were killed and that 150 men were wounded.

HARTJE DIVORCE SUDDENLY CLOSES

Savory Case Will Be Argued by Counsel on Next Monday.

MRS. HARTJE HELD UP WELL

Both Sides Confident of Winning—Testimony Closed Yesterday With Witnesses Swearing That Each Other Testified to Lies.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., August 2.—After twenty-one days of court sittings, the Hartje divorce case terminated rather suddenly to-day. Arguments was set for next Monday morning.

Judge Frazer announced that the case must be submitted to him by Wednesday evening, as he intended to leave for his vacation next Thursday. After the case was concluded Mrs. Hartje was surrounded by a group of friends, who congratulated her on the manner in which she held up under the severe strain. Augustus Hartje sat in his chair watching his wife closely. He, too, showed relief but said nothing. The attorneys for both Mr. and Mrs. Hartje expressed themselves as satisfied with the case as it stands and expressed confidence that the court would decide in their favor.

John A. Ball, a newspaper man, testified to an interview he had with Ed. Hartje, brother of the libellant, on April 12, in which Hartje said: "We have letters to show that Mrs. Hartje is a very bad woman."

John Gayer, a detective, the next witness, said he was present at the interview and corroborated Ball. The date mentioned, April 12, was two months before the Hartje detectives said they had taken the letters from Coachman Madine's trunk. Attorney Freeman then announced the case closed for the respondent.

Edward Hartje was called to the stand by the plaintiff's counsel and denied that he had made the statement to Ball.

John Marron, of Hartje's counsel, followed Mr. Hartje on the stand and denied the story yesterday by Fred L. Long, the newspaper man.

Long had testified that Marron told him last February that the attorneys for the plaintiff had a number of letters in their possession that would prove the charges against Mrs. Hartje with Thomas Madine, the coachman co-respondent.

After Edward Hartje, Richard Hartje, brother of the libellant, and a number of employes of the Hartje Company, had been called to contradict the testimony of the woman Rose, in regard to the libellant's associating with Josephine Wright, the case closed.

INFERNAL MACHINE PLOT.

Timely Discovery Saved Blowing Up of Police Headquarters.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Moscow, August 2.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to-day to blow up police headquarters building. It was frustrated by the discovery of the infernal machine, which had been hidden in a laundry basket, because of the clicking sound of its mechanism.

A general demonstration occurred to-day at the Church of St .George, where a requiem was celebrated for the repose of the soul of M. Hersenstein, the murdered constitutional Democratic leader. Thousands who could not obtain admission to the church stood uncovered in the streets.
